

K-love radio station is great for the community and myself. Not only does it play great music, I don't have to hear negative comments from the DJ's. It is my right to have this station and other stations like it. It is a great inspiration to my community. It helps people make decision to become good citizens. I pray I am never without K-love Mary Sax